FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEXICAN MAN SENTENCED FOR METH CONSPIRACY

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced today that a Kansas City, Mo., man has been sentenced in federal court for participating in a conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine in Jackson County, Mo.

Derby Caro-Alarcon, 29, a citizen of Mexico living in Kansas City, was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Scott O. Wright on Jan. 20, 2005, to five years in federal prison without parole.

On March 24, 2004, Caro-Alarcon pleaded guilty to his role in a conspiracy to distribute 50 grams or more of methamphetamine.

On Dec. 9, 2004, co-defendant Jose Manuel Mancha-Galvan, 29, also a citizen of Mexico living in Kansas City, was sentenced to five years and 10 months in federal prison without parole. Mancha-Galvan pleaded guilty on March 24, 2004, to his role in the conspiracy.

Both co-defendants were originally charged in an indictment returned by a federal grand jury on Jan. 27, 2004, in Kansas City, and have admitted to entering the United States illegally and have no legal resident status in the United States.

This case was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney David DeTar Newbert. It was investigated by the Drug Enforcement Administration and the DEA Task Force.
